About AMELIA

elegant · expansive · aligned · artistic Known for her especially pure tone, flexible technique, and passionate, committed performances, Powell Flutes Artist Amelia Lukas enjoys a wide range of solo, chamber and orchestral playing. A resident of Portland, Oregon, Amelia's recent engagements include solo appearances with Chamber Music Northwest, Fear No Music, March Music Moderne, Portland Taiko, the Astoria Music Festival, Music in the Woods, Cascadia Composers, and for All Classical Portland's live radio broadcasts, with additional chamber and orchestral performances for the Eugene Symphony, Willamette Valley Chamber Music Festival, Portland Piano International, Friends of Chamber Music, 45th Parallel, Oregon Music Festival, and Bridgetown Orchestra. While in New York, Amelia's career included membership in the American Modern Ensemble and afforded her performances at Carnegie Hall (Main Stage, Zankel Hall, and Weill Recital Hall), Lincoln Center, The Stone, Bargemusic, (Le) Poisson Rouge, Roulette, and New Music New York Festival. Lauded for her skilled interpretation of new music and "considerable technique," (The New York Times) Amelia is a member of Fear No Music. She holds degrees from the Manhattan School of Music and the Royal Academy of Music (London) where she received three prizes for musical excellence. Amelia is a Board Member for Chamber Music Northwest and offers sophisticated PR services to artists and arts organizations as the Principal and Founder of Aligned Artistry. "a buoyancy of spirit that comes out in the flute, a just beautiful sound"

— The Boston Globe

"[Lukas] excels at bringing drama and fire... we consistently enjoy her sensitive, emotive, virtuosic approach"

— Oregon ArtsWatch

"even Mozart would have called that Lukas flute 'magic'"

— The Pacifica Tribune
